It's hard to believe it's been a year since we had the pleasure of meeting your acquaintance at the Galara Banquet. There was so much happening to us in a short period of time - we may have been remiss in personally thanking you for all you did for us. Mike + I had such a wonderful time and know it was largely due to your hard work, time and energy. Please pass on our thanks to those whose hard work may have gone unnoticed. We were so well taken care of and appreciate all the arrangements that were made for our benefit.

We are really enjoying our tour in Germany. We have managed to see a little bit of Europe so far and have taken the baby with us everywhere. He should be well travelled and speaking German we hope by the time we come back to the States. He's walking now, and talking a bit. It's amazing how fast they change. Our experience with him, for the most part, has been one of pure joy.

Mike is really enjoying the flying here, and gets to see quite a bit more of Europe than Peter and I do. But, he says, it's a dirty job and somebody has to do it!

If you've ever entertained thoughts of a European vacation, we'll be here for another three years, so please, look us up.

Again - thanks for a memorable weekend and for the pictures you were
